

Dear Ellie,

We have been using the GPS tracking system you provided us for the past couple of years in our construction business. We are very happy with the functionality of the system. It allows us to implement live-tracking of our vehicles, as well as monitoring the speeding and idling by our drivers. The reports generated by the system such as time-sheet report also comes in handy for verification purposes. Overall, the system has been serving us well and I would be happy to recommend it to other companies and users.

Sincerely,
Ken Brown
